Pastor's Note

(Front cover: “Scimus Christus surrexisse a mortuis vere”— “We know that Christ has truly risen from the dead.” The photo is of parishioner Christophe Juhasz chanting the First Prophecy at the Great Paschal Vigil, Easter Eve, 2010, Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church. The lighted Paschal Candle symbolizes the Risen Christ. It is lighted at all the parish Masses from Easter Eve until Ascension Thursday in order to recall how Jesus Christ was visible to the disciples in His Risen Body for forty days after the Resurrection. Photo by Warren Yee.)

“CHRIST IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!”

☪ Easter Greetings to all our parishioners, friendly visitors and seekers who celebrate the Day of the Lord’s Resurrection with us. This is the foundational feast of the whole Christian religion, the “Feast of Feasts”. Jesus of Nazareth was unjustly put to a horrible, mutilating death by crucifixion on Good Friday. His corpse was quickly placed in a tomb and the tomb was sealed up. A constant guard of Roman soldiers was placed before it.

Despite these precautions the tomb was found empty on Easter Sunday morning. The followers of Jesus of Nazareth declared that He had come back from the dead, and that they had verified His return to life with their own five senses and over a period of many days. No amount of threats could induce them to change their story. Indeed, they seemed to have lost all fear of death as a result of what they had seen.

Benedict XVI, now our Pope-emeritus, in his book Jesus of Nazareth: Holy Week (A.D. 2011), summarizes how we are to properly understand the Biblical accounts of Jesus’ Resurrection and the confession of Faith:

—Jesus did not simply return to normal biological life as one who, by the laws of biology, would eventually have to die again.
—Jesus is not a ghost (“spirit”). In other words, He does not belong to the realm of the dead but is somehow able to reveal Himself in the realm of the living.
—Nevertheless, the encounters with the Risen Lord are not the same as mystical experiences, in which the human spirit is momentarily drawn aloft out of itself and perceives the realm of the divine and eternal, only to return then to the normal horizon of its existence. Mystical experience is a temporary removal of the soul’s spatial and cognitive limitations. But it is not an encounter with a person coming toward me from without. Saint Paul clearly distinguished his mystical experiences, such as his elevation to the third heaven described in 2 Corinthians 12:1-4, from His encounter with the Risen Lord on the road to Damascus, which was a historical event—an encounter with a living person.

The Miracle of the Resurrection cannot be explained away. May we have the same vital, rock-solid faith in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ as the first disciples did, believing by faith though we have not seen.

(Fr. Higgins)

LATIN MASS TEXTS

Traditional Propers

Easter Sunday

Vestments: White

INTROIT: Psalm 138: 18, 5-6, I arose, and am still with Thee, alleluia: Thou hast laid Thine hand upon me, alleluia: Thy knowledge is become wonderful, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 1-2: Lord, Thou hast searched me, and known Me: Thou knowest my sitting down and my rising up. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, Who on this day through Thine only-begotten Son hast overcome death and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; do Thou follow with Thine aid the desires which Thou dost put into our minds and by Thy continual help bring the same to good effect. Through the same Lord.

EPISTLE: I Corinthians 5: 7-8 Brethren, purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new paste, as you are unleavened, for Christ our Pasch is sacrificed. Therefore let us feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GRADUAL: Psalm 117: 24, 1 This is the day which the Lord hath made: let us be glad and rejoice in it. V. Give praise unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth forever.

ALLELUIA: I Corinthians 5: 7 Alleluia, alleluia. V. Christ our Pasch is sacrificed.

SEQUENCE Forth to the Paschal Victim, Christians, bring your sacrifice of praise. The Lamb redeems the sheep, and Christ the sinless one has to the Father sinners reconciled. Together, death and life in a strange conflict strove: the Prince of Life, who died, now lives and reigns. What thou sawest, Mary, say, as thou wentest on the way? I saw the tomb wherein the living one had lain; I saw His glory as He rose again; yea, napkin and linen clothes, and angels twain: Yea, Christ is risen, my hope, and He will go before you into Galilee. We know that Christ indeed has risen from the grave: hail, thou King of victory, have mercy, Lord, and save. Amen.

GOSPEL: Mark 16: 1-7 At that time, Mary Magdalen, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought sweet spices, that coming they might anoint Jesus. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulcher, the sun being now risen. And they said, one to another: Who shall roll us back the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And looking, they saw the stone rolled back. For it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side clothed with a white robe, and they were astonished. Who saith to them: Be not affrighted, ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified: He is risen, He is not here; behold the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples, and Peter, that He goeth before you into Galilee. There you shall see Him as He told you.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 75: 9-10 The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment, alleluia.

SECRET Accept, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the prayers of Thy people with the oblation of sacrifice; that what we have begun by these Paschal mysteries, by Thy operation may profit us for a healing remedy unto everlasting life. Through our Lord.

Preface for Easter

COMMUNION: I Corinthians 5: 7-8 Christ our Pasch is immolated, alleluia: therefore let us feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION Pour forth upon us, O Lord, the Spirit of Thy love, that by Thy loving kindness Thou mayest make to be of one mind, those whom Thou hast fed with these Paschal sacraments. Through our Lord...in the unity of the same Holy Ghost.

V. Go, the Mass is ended, alleluia, alleluia.

R. Let us give thanks to God, alleluia, alleluia.

THE ONE COLLECTION AT EASTER MASSES IS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE SICK AND RETIRED PRIESTS OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON

THE NEWTON FOOD PANTRY ASKS OUR HELP:

“Newton, despite its Garden City reputation, has many hungry citizens and the numbers continue to grow. Particularly, in this economy where both food prices are rising and people are being laid off or not earning enough to pay for food, the problem is getting worse. At the NEWTON FOOD PANTRY the demand for services has escalated sharply in just the last few months. We now serve almost 500 households, including the elderly on fixed incomes and families with children. Over the past 30 years, our all-volunteer organization has served this Population, providing a wide variety of foods meant to be a 4-5 day nutritionally balanced supplement to their monthly food supply. Through food drives and monetary contributions, many organizations and individuals have given to our cause.

The Greater Boston Food Bank is a major contributor and the City of Newton has generously provided us with space. But we still spend thousands of dollars a year in purchases to assure that all essential items are in stock, and these expenses have grown tremendously. For the first time in the Pantry’s history, we have to dig deeply into our reserves to fulfill our obligations. As a result, we are in great need of additional financial contributions in order to continue our mission. We respectfully request that you share this information with your congregation so that those in a position to give will consider making a contribution to this important and worthy cause.”

NEWTON FOOD PANTRY, 1608 Beacon Street, Waban, MA 02468

Catholic Appeal

Please consider making a gift to this year’s Catholic Appeal. Appeal pledge envelopes are at the entrance tables to the church. Our parish number is 294.

The Appeal Goal set for us by the Archdiocese is $19,423.00.

“There is a Good Samaritan in each one of us.”

The Easter Collection supports the retirement, medical and financial needs of the priests of the Archdiocese of Boston. These priests have given their lives faithfully to serve Christ, the Church and you. Thank you for your support.
