ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

SCRIPTURE STUDY

SUNDAY EPISTLES STUDY PENTECOST SUNDAY

Acts 2:1-11

Today's lesson from the Book of Acts recounts the coming of the Holy Ghost upon Our Lady and the Apostles, manifesting Himself under the form of fire. At Jesus' baptism, by contrast, He manifests himself in the form of a dove (cf. Lk. 3:22). Like the sacraments we receive today, wherein tangible elements both signify and confer grace, so too, the fire simultaneously veils and manifests the divine presence of the Holy Ghost. Fire warms, burns or purifies, and gives light. By way of analogy, the Holy Spirit, like fire, burns or purifies us of our sins by means of baptism and confirmation. In these two sacraments, He simultaneously "warms" us by kindling within us the grace of charity. Like the brightness of fire, He also enlightens our minds and wills with the truth, so that we might know God and live in His grace.

These aspects of the analogy of fire appear in the Alleluia verse and the glorious Sequence hymn, the Veni, Sancte Spiritus. The Alleluia verse is very familiar to many of us: "Come, O Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful: and kindle in them the fire of Thy love." This is a prayer often said before study, especially of the Scriptures. The parts of the Sequence hymn which invoke the analogy of fire and light read thus: "Shed a ray of light divine...within our bosoms shine...melt the frozen, warm the chill, guide the steps that go astray." What a good practice it would be for us to pray this Sequence throughout the year in our devotions, especially when troubled, doubtful, or sorrowful. An appropriate prayer for the Year of Mercy indeed.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 696, we read that "fire symbolizes the transforming energy of the Holy Spirit's actions...[He] transforms what He touches." In the Eastern Churches, a particular devotion to the Holy Spirit has developed in their Epiklesis prayers in various traditions, in which the priest, having already said the words of consecration, calls upon the Holy Spirit to transform the bread and wine into Christ's Body and Blood. Thus, this ancient tradition makes a distinction between the priest as Alter Christus, and the Holy Spirit, noting their equally indispensable roles in confecting the sacrament. In their ancient Divine Liturgy of St. James, our brethren of Our Lady of Mesopotamia Mission here at Mary Immaculate have a beautiful Epiklesis prayer. Their Syriac tradition is a continuing witness of devotion to the Holy Spirit and His action in the miracle of Transubstantiation.

In Book 7 of his work, On the Priesthood, St. John Chrysostom, still a layman at the time, comments thus on the roles of the Holy Spirit and the priest at the Eucharistic sacrifice: "Imagine in your mind's eye, if you will, Elijah and the vast crowd standing around him and the sacrifice lying upon the stone altar. All the rest are still, hushed in deep silence. The prophet alone is praying. Suddenly fire falls from the skies on to the offering. It is marvelous; it is charged with bewilderment. Turn, then, from that scene to our present rites, and you will see not only marvelous things, but things that transcend all terror. The priests stands bringing down, not fire, but the Holy Spirit. And he offers prayer at length, not that some flame lit from above may consume the offerings, but that grace may fall on the sacrifice through that prayer..."

Thus, we could rightly consider every Mass to be a renewal of the grace of Pentecost, insofar as the Holy Spirit comes down upon the Church and her offering, transforming both by His grace.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: PENTECOST SUNDAY

INTROIT: Wisdom 1: 7 The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia; and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 67:2 Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered: and let them that hate Him flee from before His face. COLLECT O God, who on this day didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people by the light of Thy Holy Spirit, grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things and ever rejoice in His holy consolation. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: Acts of the Apostles 2: 1-11 When the days of the Pentecost were accomplished, they were all together in one place; and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as it were of fire, and it sat upon every one of them; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they began to speak with divers tongues, according as the Holy Ghost gave them to speak. Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. And when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded in mind, because that every man heard them speak in his own tongue. And they were all amazed, and wondered, saying: Behold, are not all these that speak Galileans? And how have we heard every man our own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians and Medes, and Elamites, and inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews also, and Proselytes, Cretes, and Arabians: we have heard them speak in our own tongues the wonderful works of God. PASCHAL ALLELUIA: (Psalm 103:30) Alleluia, alleluia. V. Send for Thy Spirit, and they shall be created, and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth. (All kneel) Alleluia. V. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful: and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

SEQUENCE: Veni Sancte Spiritus Come, Holy Ghost, send down those beams, Which sweetly flow in silent streams From Thy bright throne above. O, come, Thou Father of the poor, O, come, Thou source of all our store, Come fill our hearts with love. O Thou of comforters the best, O Thou the soul's delightful guest, The pilgrim's sweet relief. Rest art Thou in our toil, most sweet Refreshment in the noon-day heat, And solace in our grief. O blessed Light of Life Thou art, Fill with Thy Light the inmost hearts O those that hope in Thee. Without Thy Godhead nothing can Have any price or worth in man, Nothing can harmless be. Lord, wash our sinful stains away, Water from heaven our barren clay, Our wounds and bruises heal. To Thy sweet yoke our stiff necks bow, Warm with Thy love our hearts of snow, Our wandering feet recall. Grant to Thy faithful, dearest Lord, Whose only hope is in Thy Word, Thy sevenfold gift of grace. Grant us in life Thy grace, that we In peace may die and ever be In joy before Thy face. Amen.

Alleluia. GOSPEL: John 14: 23-31 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: If any one love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and will make Our abode in him: he that loveth Me not keepeth not My words. And the word which you have heard is not Mine; but the Father's who sent Me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you. But the Paraclete, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatsoever I shall have said to you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. You have heard that I said to you: I go away, and I come unto you. If you loved Me, you would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass: that when it shall come to pass you may believe. I will not now speak many things with you. For the prince of this world cometh, and in Me he hath not any thing. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father hath given Me commandment so do I. OFFERTORY: Psalm 67: 29-30 Confirm, O God, what Thou hast wrought in us; from Thy temple, which is in Jerusalem, kings shall offer presents to Thee, alleluia. SECRET Sanctify, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts which we offer Thee, and cleanse our hearts by the light of the Holy Spirit. Through our Lord. COMMUNION: Acts of the Apostles 2: 2, 4 Suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind coming (and it filled the house) where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, speaking the wonderful works of God, alleluia, alleluia. POSTCOMMUNION May the outpouring of the Holy Spirit purify our hearts, O Lord and by the inward sprinkling of His heavenly dew may they be made fruitful. Through our Lord.
