ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners
and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME

Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Blessed Pope Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

SCENES FROM OUR PARISH LIFE AT HIGH SUMMER

On Sunday, July 29th, at the 10:30 Latin Mass we welcomed back Fr. Jon Tveit as a guest celebrant. Fr. Tveit is a priest of the Archdiocese of New York and is assigned as parochial vicar to Resurrection Church in Rye, N.Y. (Fr. Tveit became a parishioner at Mary Immaculate of Lourdes during his undergraduate student years at Boston College. He served on the Parish Staff as a Sacristan and Cantor after graduation. He was ordained to the priesthood in 2016.) Here are some of Rod Phillip's photos of the Sunday Mass.

Rod has also taken some beautiful pictures of the outside of the church during these glorious summer days, one of which is on the front cover. Also, there is an interesting photograph of the full "blood moon" over the parish church and campanile on Friday, July 27th

In Christian imagery, the Moon is seen as a figure of Our Lady whose light is a reflection of Christ, typified by the Sun.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

COLLECTS OF THE ROMAN MISSAL SUNDAY, AUGUST 12th, 2018: TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (Missale Romanum 1962)

For today's meditation on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider today's Collect for the Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost. The following is the English translation of this Collect in the Angelus Press edition of the Roman Catholic Daily Missal:

"O Almighty and merciful God, of Whose gift it cometh that Thy faithful do unto Thee worthy and laudable service: grant us, we beseech Thee, that we may run without stumbling towards the attainment of Thy promises. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

The ascription clause of this Collect offers us a timely reminder that every individual Mass is an infinitely precious gift from God, for which we are also granted the privileged gift of participating. We must, therefore, always be careful never to allow the prayers, ceremonies, readings, and interior spiritual promptings of God's grace within the Sacred Liturgy to become automatic or taken for granted. Indeed, we do well to thank God for the privilege of having our parish Church, and also to do our concomitant duty of supporting it financially.

Another thought that should stimulate our gratitude for participation each week at Mass is the discipline of the ancient Church, wherein only the baptized faithful were allowed to remain in the Church to participate in the full length of the Mass. Catechumens and penitents were dismissed after the Liturgy of the Word. While this is not the current discipline of the Church (and hasn't been for many centuries), it underlines the dignity of the priesthood of baptism, which empowers the baptized to worship God "in spirit and truth," as the Fathers of the Church understand it (cf. Jn. 4:23-24). Only the baptized faithful in the state of grace possess the divinely-given capacity to participate in the One Sacrifice of the Altar (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 784, 901, 1141, 1268, 1273).

To further explore this idea, we turn to the clear and succinct teaching of the late Servant of God, Fr. John Hardon, S.J.. The following excerpts are drawn from his Q&A catechism entitled The Faith.

"What is a sacrifice?...a sacrifice is the voluntary surrender of something precious to God." "How can we make our whole life a sacrifice to God? By uniting our daily sacrifices with Christ's sacrifice on Calvary." (cf. The Faith, p. 187). "What, then, is our prayer? Our prayer is to unite our will with the will of Christ so that, like Him, we might do the will of God." (cf. The Faith, p.247).

Consider this excerpt also from p. 338 of Fr. Hardon's Modern Catholic Dictionary: "The re-presentation [of Calvary in the Mass] means that because Christ is really present in His humanity, in heaven and on the altar, He is capable now as he was on Good Friday of freely offering Himself to the Father. He can no longer die because He now has a glorified body, but the essence of His oblation remains the same."

Thus, our sacrifice at Mass, while it includes the offering of every aspect of our life in union with Christ, is to be located especially in the offering of our will in concert with Christ's human will in His Sacrifice of Calvary, which is the same Sacrifice as that of the Mass (cf. The Faith, pp. 78, 120). This is a most critical point which Fr. Hardon also emphasizes in his CD/MP3 audio catechesis talks on the Sacraments in the "Marian Catechism Apostolate."

As Fr. Hardon explains elsewhere in another catechetical work, "A better way of viewing the oblation is to see it as an ongoing self-surrender to the will of God....like His, [i.e., Christ's sacrifice] the surrender of self to the will of the Father is meant to go on in a kind of lifelong liturgy" (cf. The Catholic Catechism, p. 470).

LATIN MASS PROPERS: TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 69:2-3. O GOD, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me: let mine enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul. Ps. ibid. 4. Let them be turned backward and blush for shame, who desire evils to me. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — O God, come to my assistance ...

COLLECT O ALMIGHTY and merciful God, of whose gift it cometh that Thy faithful do unto Thee worthy and laudable service: grant us, we beseech Thee, that we may run without stumbling towards the attainment of Thy promises. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the Second Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, 3. 4-9. BRETHREN: Such confidence we have through Christ towards God. Not that we are sufficient to think anything of ourselves, as of ourselves: but our sufficiency is from God. Who also hath made us fit ministers of the new testament, not in the letter, but in the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit quickeneth. Now if the ministration of death, engraven with letters upon stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance; which is made void: how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather in glory? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more the ministration of justice aboundeth in glory.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:2-3. I WILL bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall ever be in my mouth. In the Lord shall my soul be praised: let the meek hear, and rejoice. ALLELUIA: Psalm 87:2. Alleluia, Alleluia. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day and in the night before Thee. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Luke, 10. 23-37. AT THAT TIME, Jesus said to His disciples: Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear, and have not heard them. And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him, and saying: Master, what must I do to possess eternal life? But He said to him: What is written in the law? how readest thou? He answering, said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And He said to him: Thou hast answered rightly: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus: And who is my neighbor? And Jesus answering, said: A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who also stripped him, and having wounded him went away, leaving him half dead. And it chanced that a certain priest went down the same way, and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan being on his journey, came near him, and seeing him, was moved with compassion, and going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine; and setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two pence, and gave to the host, and said: Take care of him, and whatsoever thou shalt spend over and above, I, at my return, will repay thee. Which of these three, in thine opinion, was neighbor to him that fell among robbers? But he said: He that showed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him: Go and do thou in like manner.

OFFERTORY: Exodus 32: 11. 13. 14. MOSES prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said: Why, O Lord, is Thine indignation enkindled against Thy people? Let the anger of Thy mind cease; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom Thou didst swear to give a land flowing with milk and honey. And the Lord was appeased from doing the evil which He had spoken of doing against his people.

SECRET: GRACIOUSLY look upon the offerings, we beseech Thee, O Lord, which we present upon Thine altar: that while they obtain pardon for us, they may give honor to Thy name. Through our Lord ...

COMMUNION: Psalm 103: 13. 14-15 THE earth shall be filled with the fruit of Thy works, O Lord, that Thou mayest bring bread out of the earth, and that wine may cheer the heart of man; that he may make the face cheerful with oil; and that bread may strengthen man's heart.

POSTCOMMUNION: MAY the holy reception of this Mystery quicken us, we beseech Thee, O Lord: and may it win for us both pardon and protection. Through our Lord ...
