Parish Mission Statement

"What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life."

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

First Solemn Mass
Sunday, May 19, 2019

O God, the glory of Thy priests, who didst give us Thy Only-Begotten Son to be our High Priest and the most watchful Pastor of souls, and didst make all holy priests and levites His associates in offering to Thee a spotless Victim and in promoting the salvation of the human race: grant, we beseech Thee, though the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin, and all the holy priests and levites, that the spirit of grace be stirred up in Thy Church, so that filled with this same grace, we love what they loved, and accomplish in deed what they taught by word and example. Through the same Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord, who is God, living and reigning with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, for all ages of ages. Amen.

*FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER:
POST-COMMUNION PRAYER*

Missale Romanum 1962 (MR '62)

For this week's column on the Collects of the Roman Missal, we consider the Post-Communion Collect for today's Mass of the Fourth Sunday after Easter in the MR'62. The following is my own translation of this prayer:

"Be with us, Lord our God: that, through these things which we have received faithfully, we may both be purged from vices and delivered from all dangers. Through our Lord, etc. Amen."

The Post-Communion often speaks about the fruits of a worthy reception of Holy Communion. It bears repeating what some of those fruits include. Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1391 lists the primary fruit, fittingly rehearsing Jesus' own promises in John 6.

"Holy Communion augments our union with Christ. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist in Holy Communion is an intimate union with Christ Jesus. Indeed, the Lord said: 'He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.' Life in Christ has its foundation in the Eucharistic banquet: 'As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me.'"

This truth is conveyed by the Post-Communion Collect's central petition: "Adesto nobis," or "Be with us." Even after the Sacred Host has dissolved within us, and the few moments have passed wherein we possess the substantial Presence of Our Lord, Jesus nevertheless remains spiritually in our souls by sanctifying grace. Our petition, therefore, begs God always to fulfill what Christ solemnly promised. Such mutual indwelling, effected and strengthened by the regular reception of Holy Communion, is an ongoing reality for those who diligently foster the life of grace.

Practically speaking, this means that we can count on Christ's spiritual presence in our souls during the good times and the challenging times. Provided we do not consciously and willfully expel him through mortal sin, we can always lean upon the divine friendship of Jesus in prayer and the practice of virtue. How we need to be more conscious of this after we receive Holy Communion, especially when our minds are distracted by the cares of daily life or when tempted, as various Communion devotions will note.

This is where the discipline of daily prayer comes into play. Thus, for example, St. Jean Vianney recommends making a spiritual communion when we sense our charity is "growing cold" - the effect will be comparable to rekindling embers (cf. Pieta Prayer Book, p. 25). We may take encouragement from the following words of St. Paul, which apply not only to the Sacred Liturgy, but to prayer in general, especially during moments of trial: "Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need" (Heb. 4:6, RSV).

Two other significant effects of Holy Communion include, in the words of our Post-Communion Collect, being "purged from vices" and "delivered from all evils." We may argue that the former item refers to venial (less-serious) sin, while the latter item is to be understood as preservation from mortal sin and its eternal effects in hell. Catechism nos. 1394-5 speaks about these two hoped-for outcomes listed in the prayer:

"As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens our charity, which tends to be weakened in daily life; and this living charity wipes away venial sins. By giving Himself to us Christ revives our love and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in him."

"By the same charity that it enkindles in us, the Eucharist preserves us from future mortal sins. The more we share the life of Christ and progress in His...

friendship, the more difficult it is to break away from Him by mortal sin. The Eucharist is not ordered to the forgiveness of mortal sins - that is proper to the sacrament of Reconciliation. The Eucharist is properly the sacrament of those who are in full communion with the Church.”

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Psalm 97. 1, 2, 1 Sing ye to the Lord a new canticle, alleluia, for the Lord hath done wonderful things, alleluia; He hath revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him the victory. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Sing ye to the Lord ...

COLLECT: O God, who makest the faithful to be of one mind and will: grant to Thy people the grace to love what Thou dost command and to desire what Thou dost promise, that amid the changes of the world, our hearts may there be fixed where true joys are to be found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the Epistle of Blessed James the Apostle (James 1. 17-21) Dearly beloved, every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change nor shadow of alteration. For of His own will hath He begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be some beginning of His creature. You know, my dearest brethren. And let every man be swift to hear but slow to speak and slow to anger. For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God. Wherefore, casting away all uncleanness and abundance of naughtiness, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Psalm 117. 16; Romans 6. 9 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 117:16.) The right hand of the Lord hath wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord hath exalted me. Alleluia. (Rom. 6:9.) Christ, rising again from the dead, dieth now no more: death shall no more have dominion over Him. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 16. 5-14 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: I go to Him that sent Me: and none of you asketh Me: Whither goest Thou? But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart. But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go, for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He is come, He will convince the world of sin and of justice and of judgment. Of sin, because they believed not in Me: and of justice, because I go to the Father, and you shall see Me no longer: and of judgment, because the prince of this world is already judged. I have yet many things to say to you; but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will teach you all truth. For He shall not speak of Himself: but what things soever He shall hear He shall speak, and the things that are to come, He shall show you. He shall glorify Me: because He shall receive of Mine and shall show it to you.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 65. 1-2, 16 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His Name: come and hear, and I will tell you, all ye that fear God, what great things the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

SECRET: O God, who by the holy interchange of this Sacrifice dost make us partakers of the One Supreme Godhead: grant, we beseech Thee, that as we know Thy truth, so we may worthily live it. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: John 16. 8 When the Paraclete, the spirit of truth, is come, He will convince the world of sin and of justice and of judgment, alleluia, alleluia..

POSTCOMMUNION: Stand by us, O Lord our God, so that what we have confidently received may cleanse us from every vice and free us from every danger. Through our Lord ...
