ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

Pastor's Note

THE 93rd ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST MEMORIAL DAY MASS AT ST. MARY'S CEMETERY (PHOTOS by Rod Phillips)

Parishioner Martha Phillips made a discovery in the archives of the Boston Globe regarding the beginning of the tradition of having an outdoor Mass at our parish cemetery of St. Mary's on Memorial Day:

"An outdoor Mass will be celebrated on Monday, May 31st, at 10:30 o'clock, at St. Mary's Cemetery, Needham, under the auspices of the Church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Newton Upper Falls, Rev. Dennis Donovan, pastor of the church, announced today. This is the first time that Memorial Day services of this nature have been held in this section. A similar altar will be erected in the cemetery."

—May 21st, 1926

"Under the auspices of the Church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes, Newton Upper Falls, there will be an outdoor military mass on Monday morning in St. Mary's Cemetery, Needham, where an altar will be erected in the midst of the graves of the veterans. Rev. Dennis Donovan, pastor, will be the celebrant of the mass."

—May 26th, 1926

Thus the tradition of the Memorial Day Mass at St. Mary's Cemetery began. This year was the 93rd Anniversary of that first Memorial Day Mass.

The Year 1926 was only eight years after the end of World War I (1914-1918), the "Great War", or, "The War to End All Wars", as it was hopefully called in the 1920s, before the outbreak of a second, more terrible World War (1939-1945).

In 1954 (which was a Marian Year, the 100th Jubilee of the Dogmatic Definition of the Immaculate Conception of Mary in 1854), a plaque was dedicated on the volcanic rock there in St. Mary's, which has the figures of the Pietà and angels atop it, in memory of all the veterans buried in the cemetery's consecrated ground. Each Memorial Day American flags are placed at the grave of each veteran so it can be seen just how many veterans there are at St. Mary's.

"GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS."—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

On May 30th, 1952 Cardinal Cushing dedicated a new outdoor altar at St. Mary's, which is still in existence although no longer used for the Memorial Day Mass. The photo below shows this altar as it looked on Memorial Day of this year.

I want to express my heartfelt thanks to Ron Goguen, Nick Keough, Tom Goguen and all of the dedicated staff at Guardian Estate Management who work so hard to maintain our parish cemetery. I also want to thank Margie Bibbo, who runs the cemetery office alongside the parish office, for her dedicated work and her sensitivity to the families when they come in to the office at a time of grief, and to Sharon Hogan, our parish and cemetery business manager.

Once again our parish Music Director Bobbie Hoffmann gave us a beautiful music program, with singers and a trumpeter. Our Memorial Day was filled with the consolations of faith, in expectation of eternal life and the resurrection of the dead.

The following photographs show the observance of Memorial Day at St. Mary's this year. The Mass was offered on a portable wooden altar under the white tent.

Following the Mass, we had a time of fellowship and refreshment in the cemetery garage-office.

SACRED HEART

Missale Romanum 1970(MR '70)

As we have now entered June, the month traditionally designated for devotion to Our Lord's Sacred Heart, we turn to the classic Collect for the feast of the Sacred Heart, which occurs on the Friday after the Second Sunday after Pentecost. The Latin Collect is the same in both forms of the Roman Rite. The following is the 2010 ICEL translation of this prayer in the MR'70:

“O God, who in the Heart of your Son, wounded by our sins, bestow on us in mercy the boundless treasures of Your love, grant, we pray, that, in paying Him the homage of our devotion we may also offer worthy reparation. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.”

The technical (and more literal) term underlying the English word “reparation” here is satisfaction, which literally means “to make or do enough.” Our Collect is asking God that, while we show devoted love for Jesus, thanking Him for his infinite love for us, we may also undertake due penance for our sins. When we understand the concrete and destructive reality of sin- especially when we consider what it did to Jesus (i.e., His pierced Heart, “wounded by our sins”)- we can then see how satisfaction is integral to the Christian life, and even come to love it, when we see its divine origin and ultimate purpose.

Perhaps the best place to begin is Catechism of the Catholic Church nos. 1459-60, which explain the reality of satisfaction:

1459: “Many sins wrong our neighbor. One must do what is possible in order to repair the harm (e.g., return stolen goods, restore the reputation of someone slandered, pay compensation for injuries). Simple justice requires as much. But sin also injures and weakens the sinner himself, as well as his relationships with God and neighbor. Absolution takes away sin, but it does not remedy all the disorders sin has caused. Raised up from sin, the sinner must still recover his full spiritual health by doing something more to make amends for the sin: he must ‘make satisfaction for’ or ‘expiate’ his sins. This satisfaction is also called ‘penance.’” 1460: “[Penance].....can consist of prayer, an offering, works of mercy, service of neighbor, voluntary self-denial, sacrifices, and above all the patient acceptance of the cross we must bear. Such penances help configure us to Christ, who alone expiated our sins once for all...”

Sin can both weaken and destroy charity, i.e., love, both for God and neighbor (cf. Catechism nos. 1861-3; 1472-3). Even when we are in the state of grace, the effect of our venial sins entails the weakening and damaging of our charity, to our dismay. From this, it is quite plain why we need a continual influx of God's grace in the Sacraments and in daily prayer. A simple examination of conscience, as well as a quick scan of the daily news makes these truths manifestly clear. Everyone needs the grace that Christ alone offers in his Church. Only the Son of God makes up sufficiently and super-abundantly for the deprivation in charity caused by human sin, reconciling man to the Father in Himself by His sacrificial Death (cf. Catechism nos. 614-15). This does not mean, however, that there is nothing left for us to do for our own sanctification, as is clear from the Catechism excerpts printed above. Holiness is nothing less than “the perfection of charity” and therefore, it demands “renunciation and spiritual battle” on our part (cf. Catechism nos. 2013, 14; 1264).

Satisfaction, then, is about making up for the concrete deprivations of charity toward God and neighbor caused by our sins. In technical terms, it is about expiating the temporal punishment which is intrinsic to sin itself (cf. Catechism nos. 1472-3, 1863). Satisfaction is a dynamic participation, then, in Christ's creative and restorative work of perfecting the image of God in man. Put plainly, it's all about love- better, deeper, and more perfect love for God and neighbor- and so, it can, and should be, embraced as a “grace” (cf. Catechism nos. 2014, 1473).

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SUNDAY AFTER ASCENSION

INTROIT: Psalm 26. 7, 8, 9, 1 Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee, alleluia; my heart hath said to Thee: I have sought Thy face, Thy face, O Lord, I will seek: turn not away Thy face from me, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? Ÿ. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Hear, O Lord ...

COLLECT: O Almighty and everlasting God, make us always bear towards Thee a devoted will, and serve Thy Majesty with a sincere heart. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee...

EPISTLE: From the First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 4. 7-11) Dearly beloved, be ye prudent and watch in prayers. But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves: for charity covereth a multitude of sins. Using hospitality one towards another, without murmuring: as every man hath received grace, ministering the same, one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak, as the words of God: if any minister, let him do it, as of the power which God administereth: that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Psalm 46. 9; John 14. 18 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 46:9) The Lord hath reigned over all the nations; God sitteth on His holy throne. Alleluia. (Jn. 14:18) I will not leave you orphans: I go away, and I come unto you, and your heart shall rejoice. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 15. 26-27; 16. 1-4 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: When the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony to Me: and you shall give testimony because you are with Me from the beginning. These things I have spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. But these things I have told you, that, when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 46. 6 God is ascended with jubilee, and the Lord with the sound of a trumpet, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may be ever grateful for having filled us with Thy sacred Gifts. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: John 17. 12-13, 15 Father, while I was with them, I kept them whom Thou gavest Me, alleluia; but now I come to Thee: I pray not that Thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from evil, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may be ever grateful for having filled us with Thy sacred Gifts. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ ...
