ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

JUBILEE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

We are in the midst of a Jubilee Year in Honor of St. Joseph, which began on December 8th of last year and will conclude on December 8th of this year. This Jubilee commemorates the 150th Anniversary of the Proclamation of St. Joseph as the "Patron of the Universal Church." (Coincidentally, 1870 was also the year of the establishment of this parish as St. Mary's of Newton and Needham.) The background to the Proclamation was the immediate aftermath of the armed conquest of Rome, the Pope's city, by Vittorio Emanuele, King of Sardinia. The ecumenical Council going on in the Vatican at that time had to be abruptly discontinued and the Catholic bishops from around the world made a hasty exit.

It is hard for us Catholics today to appreciate what a cataclysmic event this was at the time and how it called into question the whole basis for the Catholic Church's continued organizational structure. Over centuries, since late Antiquity, the Bishops of Rome had acted as the temporal rulers of their domain in tandem with their spiritual rule. The imperial city of Rome and its environs made up a jurisdiction known as the Papal States. At times, these Papal States were quite extensive across the Italian peninsula. Catholics also called this Papal sovereignty the "Robe of Peter". Like a garment, the Pope's political independence was both a protection and an acknowledgment by the Christian kings and princes of Europe that the Pope, as the Vicar of Christ, submitted to no secular power.

However imperfectly this worked in practice, the principle remained, and the Papal States had their secure place in the world order of Europe throughout the Middle Ages and into the Modern period. Then came the "Age of Revolution" with the French Revolution in 1789. Twice the Popes were overthrown and their Papal States abolished, first by Napoleon I and then by the wave of Revolution which swept across Europe in 1848. Each time stronger European political powers restored the Pope to his sovereignty. The alignment of revolutionary spirit and Italian nationalism, however, proved to be too strong a force to resist.

Papal sovereignty was cast as the obstacle to Italian national unity. Pope Pius IX was derided as the “Vampire of Italy”, sucking the nation’s life-blood dry. By 1870, the Pope’s sovereign state had been reduced solely to the city of Rome, protected by France. When France met with sudden and humiliating defeat at the hands of Prussia and the German coalition in 1870, the King of Sardinia saw his opportunity and he took it.

Vittorio Emanuele declared himself the King of the new Kingdom of Italy with Rome as his capital. Pope Pius IX was unceremoniously dethroned as the temporal ruler of Rome. Thereafter began the era of the reigning Pope as the “Prisoner of the Vatican”, an era which did not definitively end until Pope John XXIII made his pilgrimage outside of Rome to the Holy House of Loreto just before the opening of the Second Vatican Council in October of 1962.

It was in the midst of this great uncertainty for the Church’s future that Pope Pius IX, “Pio Nono”, proclaimed another title for St. Joseph as “Patron of the Universal Church.” At the beginning of his reign Pius IX had introduced a new feast into the Church’s calendar, the “Patronage of St. Joseph”, which was to be celebrated on the Third Sunday after Easter each year. This feast was now blended with St. Joseph’s new title. As St. Joseph had been the Protector of Jesus and Mary during their perils on earth, so now from Heaven St. Joseph would be invoked to be the Protector of the Catholic Church, the Household of Faith, as it faced the perils of an historically new situation, stripped as it was of the “Robe of Peter.”

In 1912, Pope Pius X re-named this feast the “Solemnity of St. Joseph” and placed it on the Third Wednesday after Easter, with an Octave. Then, in 1955, Pope Pius XII transformed the Solemnity into the feast of St. Joseph the Workman to be celebrated on May 1st.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

INTROIT: Psalm 65. 1-3 Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia: sing ye a psalm to His Name, alleluia: give glory to His praise, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Say unto God: How terrible are Thy works, O Lord! In the multitude of Thy strength Thine enemies shall lie to Thee. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Shout with joy ...

COLLECT: O God, who to those that go astray dost show the light of Thy truth, that they may return to the path of justice: grant that all who are enrolled in the Christian faith, may both spurn all that is hostile to that name, and follow after what is fitting to it. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son...

EPISTLE: From First Epistle of Blessed Peter the Apostle (I Peter 2. 11-19) Dearly beloved: I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain yourselves from carnal desires, which war against the soul, having your conversation good among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by the good works which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation. Be ye subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake: whether it be to the king as excelling, or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of the good: for so is the will of God, that by doing well you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not as making liberty a cloak for malice, but as the servants of God. Honor all men: love the brotherhood: fear God: honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy before God: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PASCHAL ALLELUIA: Psalm 110. 9; Luke 24. 46 Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 110. 9.) The Lord hath sent redemption to His people. Alleluia. (Luke 24. 46.) It behooved Christ to suffer and to rise again from the dead, and so to enter into His glory. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 16. 16-22 At that time Jesus said to His disciples: A little while, and now you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me: because I go to the Father. Then some of His disciples said to one another: What is this that He saith to us: A little while, and you shall not see me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me, and, Because I go to the Father. They said therefore: What is this that He saith, A little while? We know not what He speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him. And He said to them: Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said: A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again a little while, and you shall see Me. Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also you now indeed have sorrow: but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man shall take from you. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 145. 2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: in my life I will praise the Lord: I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia.

SECRET: Grant, O Lord, by these Mysteries, that checking our earthly longings, we may learn to love heavenly things. Through our Lord...

COMMUNION: John 16. 16 A little while, and you shall not see Me, alleluia; and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the Sacraments which we have received, we beseech Thee, O Lord, renew us with spiritual refreshment and defend us with bodily help. Through our Lord ...
