ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

THE BURNING OF THE CHARLESTOWN CONVENT, 1834: EPILOGUE

One year after the burning of the Ursuline Convent of Mount Benedict, at the end of August, 1835, a terrible fire broke out in Charlestown and destroyed much of the city. It seemed to have the character of a divine chastisement, as Bishop Fenwick confided to his journal:

It would seem almost a visitation of God for the horrid outrage committed by the inhabitants of this Town upon the Ursuline Convent on the 11th of last August. It is reported in the Papers that even some lives are lost.

Bishop Fenwick invited the remnant of the Ursuline Community to return from Quebec and try to re-establish their school, which they did in August, 1838, four years after the Convent Burning. The whole project failed miserably. Many parents feared to send their daughters after what had taken place. Moreover there was internal dissension within the Sisters' Community. The Ursulines relinquished the Mount Benedict property to the Bishop of Boston in return for the payment of their debts.

On August 11th, 1846, twelve years to the day of the Charlestown Convent Burning, Bishop Fenwick died. He was sixty-four years of age. He was buried on the campus of the College of the Holy Cross, in Worcester, Massachusetts, which he had founded in 1843.

For fifty years after its destruction Mount Benedict remained a haunted ruin. One commentator, in 1870, wrote: "The Convent walls, blackened by the conflagration, are still standing, and the once beautiful grounds are wild and desolate." And another, in 1874: "When we last visited the spot the scene was one of utter loneliness. Year by year the walls have been crumbling away, until the elements are fast completing what the fire spared.

At last, in the 1870s the property was sold by the Archdiocese of Boston for landfill and housing. The proceeds, however, were used to help pay for the construction of Boston's new Cathedral of the Holy Cross which stands in the South End of Boston today.

Some bricks from the Convent ruins were re-purposed to form the arch in the entranceway to the new Cathedral.

The house in Roxbury, Brinley Place, which the Ursuline Sisters had rented for their school in the months immediately following the Burning, until Bishop Fenwick had them recalled to Quebec for their safety also had a "rest-of-the-story" in Boston Catholic life. In 1869 the property was purchased by the Redemptorist Fathers and in 1876 they laid a cornerstone for a new church. That church we know well today as the "Mission Church", Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 46:2 Clap your hands, all ye nations: shout unto God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46:3 For the Lord is the most high, He is terrible; He is a great King over all the earth. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT O God, whose providence in the ordering of all things never fails; we humbly beseech Thee to put away from us all harmful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE: Romans 6:19-23. Brethren; I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members to serve justice unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now, being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death. But the grace of God is life everlasting; in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 33:12,6. Come, children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. Alleluia, alleluia. V. O clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 7:15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

OFFERTORY: Daniel 3:40 As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs; so let our sacrifice be made in Thy sight this day, that it may please Thee: for there is no confusion to them that trust in Thee, O Lord.

SECRET: O God who in this one sacrifice, hast perfected the offering of the many victims prescribed under the Old Law: receive this same sacrifice offered by Thy devoted servants and sanctify it with a blessing, like unto that which Thou didst bestow upon the offerings of Abel, that what each one of us has brought here to the glory of Thy name, may profit all unto salvation. Through our Lord.

Preface of the Holy Trinity

COMMUNION: Psalm 30:3. Bow down Thy ear, make haste to deliver me.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy healing work in our souls mercifully free us from our perverse inclinations, O Lord, and lead us ever to do that which is right in Thy sight. Through our Lord.
