ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH
REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)
Raised to the Altars October 14th, 2018

BLESSING OF SEED AND SEEDLINGS

September 1st in the Ordo of Catholic liturgical worship now contains the special designation: World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. The Pope's Intention for this Month of September, 2021 is: For a Sustainable Environment. As we know there is a general heightened (we might even say hyper) awareness of care for the earth's natural environment in our world today.

For Christians, it is important for us to keep our environmentalism Christian, if you will. There is a great deal of eco-apocalypticism, pantheism, neo-paganism, and materialism in care-for-the-environment discourse. We want to separate ourselves from that.

A Christian environmentalism focuses on man's rôle of good steward of God's creation, as we read in Genesis 2:15: "The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to till and to keep it." This is a metaphor for the whole of humankind's development of the earth's resources to sustain life and improve the conditions of life.

A Christian environmentalism also acknowledges God's sovereignty over His Creation. We rely on His Providence for the earth's continued ability to sustain life. One way to read the Old Testament Books of the Bible is to read them from the point of view of how people are trying to make theological sense out of the larger forces of nature over which they have no control and which can so easily wipe them out. Compare the most dire weather reports and predictions from today's news stories on human-caused climate change to the actual extreme-climate events being suffered by people in the Bible. They seem very similar! In the Bible, as the sacred texts of the People of Israel, they are interpreted in terms of the people's fidelity or infidelity to the LORD God.

A secular world's narrative still blames humanity for collective sin, only it is the Planet Earth which is punishing us in the place of an offended Deity.

A Christian corrective would focus on humble prayer to God for His mercy in continuing to give to the earth the good things which are necessary for life. An example of this is the beautiful blessing-prayer for seeds and seedlings given on the Feast of Our Lady's Nativity, September 8th. I reproduce that text from the old Roman Ritual here:

BLESSING OF SEED AND SEEDLINGS On the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

O holy Lord, Father Almighty, everlasting God, we beg Thee to look with friendly countenance and benevolent eyes upon these seeds and seedlings. As Thou didst proclaim to Moses, Thy servant in the land of Egypt, saying: "Tell the children of Israel that when they enter the land of promise which I shall give them, they are to offer the first-fruits to the priests, and they shall be blessed"; so too at our request, O Lord, bless these seeds in Thy benevolence, and let them germinate and grow. Let neither hail nor frost destroy them, but keep them unharmed unto a finest maturity and abundant harvest for the service of body and soul, Thou who livest and reignest in perfect Trinity forever. Amen.

O Almighty, everlasting God, Sower and Tiller of the heavenly world, Who dost cultivate the field of our hearts with heavenly tools, hearken to our prayers, and pour forth bountiful blessings upon the fields in which these seeds will be sown. By Thy protecting hand, turn away the fury of the elements, so that this entire fruit may be filled with Thy blessing, and may be gathered without hindrance into the granary. Through Our Lord, Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in unity of the Holy Ghost, God, forevermore. Amen.

As I did with the Blessing of Plants and Flowers for the Assumption this year, I would like to offer also this Blessing of Seeds and Seedlings next Saturday, September 11th, at 9 AM, immediately before the Mass. I invite anyone to bring seeds and seedlings from your gardens to be placed on the blessing table.

As you can see from this blessing-prayer, it offers us a wonderful text to think on and to orient us towards a truly Christian kind of environmentalism.

On Sunday, August 15th, this year, the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady, the vestments used at the parish Masses were a beautiful set of Marian vestments which were presented by the Nicoloro Family in honor of their toddler son Angelo who died in June. The chasuble has the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Angelo was born on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12th, 2019. According to the faith of the Catholic Church, Angelo, together with all baptized children who have died early in life in their baptismal innocence, are Saints in Heaven.

THE 7:30 A.M. PARISH MASS ON MONDAYS IS OFFERED FOR ALL THOSE ENROLLED IN THE PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Psalm 85. 1, 2, 3. INCLINE Thine ear, O Lord, to me and hear me: save Thy servant, O my God, that trusteth in Thee: have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to Thee all the day. Ps. ibid. 4. Give joy to the soul of Thy Servant; for to Thee, O Lord, I have lifted up my soul. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — Incline Thine ear, O Lord ...

COLLECT LET Thy continual pity, O Lord, cleanse and defend Thy Church: and because it cannot continue in safety without Thee, may it ever be governed by Thy goodness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From the Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Galatians, 5. 25-26; 6. 1-10. BRETHREN: If we live in the spirit, let us also walk in the spirit. Let us not be made desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, and if a man be overtaken in any fault, you, who are spiritual, instruct such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so you shall fulfill the law of Christ. For if any man think himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let everyone prove his own work, and so he shall have glory in himself only, and not in another. For every one shall bear his own burden. And let him that is instructed in the word, Communicate to him that instructeth him, in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for what things a man shall sow, those also shall he reap. For he that soweth in his flesh, of the flesh also shall reap corruption: but he that soweth in the spirit, of the spirit shall reap life everlasting. And in doing good, let us not fail; for in due time we shall reap, not failing. Therefore, whilst we have time, let us work good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of the faith.

GRADUAL: Psalm 91. 2-3. IT is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing to Thy Name, O most High. To show forth Thy mercy in the morning, and Thy truth in the night. ALLELUIA: Psalm 94. 3. Alleluia, Alleluia. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King over all the earth. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Luke, 7. 11-16. AT THAT TIME, Jesus went into a city called Naim: and there went with Him His disciples, and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a great multitude of the city was with her. Whom when the Lord had seen, being moved with mercy towards her, He said to her: Weep not. And He came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said: Young man, I say to thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all: and they glorified God, saying: a great Prophet is risen up amongst us, and God hath visited His people.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 39. 2, 3, 4. WITH expectation I have waited for the Lord, and He had regard to me; and He heard my prayer, and He put a new canticle into my mouth, a song to our God.

SECRET: MAY Thy Sacraments, O Lord, safeguard us, and ever defend us against the assaults of the devil. Through our Lord ...

COMMUNION: John 6. 52. THE bread that I will give is My Flesh for the life of the world.

POSTCOMMUNION: MAY the efficacy of the heavenly Gift, we beseech Thee, O Lord, possess our minds and bodies: so that its effects, and not our own impulses, may ever prevail in us. Through our Lord ...
