ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

PURGATORY, PURIFICATION AND ADVENT

This year, as often happens, the close of November, the Month of Remembrance for the Dead, coincides with the beginning of Advent. Indeed this coincidence re-enforces the over-lap of the liturgical mystery itself. The Year of Grace closes with the portents of the End of the World and Christ's Second Advent: the Season of Advent for the new Year of Grace opens with the portents of this Second Glorious Coming of Christ and the passing away of the form of this world. The end is the beginning: the beginning is the end.

It is interesting to note that the Sequence Dies irae, so important a part of the Catholic Requiem Mass before the Pauline Reform of 1970, was originally used in the liturgy for the First Sunday of Advent. If we read the text of the Dies irae as a beginning-of-Advent prayer we can see how well it fits. All the pretensions of human self-will, all the wrongness of sin, melt before the overpowering manifestation of Christ the Divine Judge. Our only appeal is to His mercy, for in justice we cannot bear it.

This is a good moment to consider the Mystery of Faith which is Purgatory, particularly through the revelation to St. Catherine of Genoa, which is preserved in her Treatise on Purgatory. The times we live in are distinctly times of un-faith, where YOLO ("You-Only-Live-Once!") is the default attitude towards our brief existence on this earth. To the extent that people believe in, or consider as a possibility, the prospect of life after death it's "instant heaven". St. Catherine's Treatise on Purgatory therefore is a particularly good source for us to help us understand why, in the divine economy, this is not even possible.

It is not possible because a human soul cannot approach the divine goodness with any trace of sin or moral imperfection and this the soul itself experiences:

Hell and Purgatory manifest the wonderful wisdom of God. The separated soul goes naturally to its own place. The soul in the state of [mortal] sin, finding no place more suitable, throws itself OF ITS OWN ACCORD into Hell. And the soul which is not yet ready for divine union, casts itself voluntarily into Purgatory.

Heaven has no gates. Whoever will can enter there, because God is all goodness. But the divine essence is so pure that the soul, finding in itself obstacles, prefers to enter Purgatory, and there to find in mercy the removal of the impediment.

*Their greatest suffering [in Purgatory] is that of having sinned against divine goodness, still finding those rusty "remains of sin"... These souls enjoy inexpressible peace, compounded of joy and pain, neither diminishing the other... These souls would not in any way lessen their sufferings they have merited... To conclude, only God's omnipotent mercy can cure human deficiency. This transformation is the work of Purgatory. (Source: Fr. Reginald Garrigou-LaGrange, Life Everlasting, 1952, TAN reprint edition, 1993.)*

"Our self-will is so subtle and so deeply-rooted within us, so covered with excuses and defended by false reasoning that it seems a devil.

When we cannot do our own will in any way, we do it in another, under all kinds of pretexts of charity, of necessity, of justice... from the example of others, or of pleasing someone who is trying to oblige us."

St Catherine of Genoa

ST. CATHERINE OF GENOA
1447-1510 A.D.

Who was St. Catherine of Genoa, to whom Our Lord entrusted such revelations regarding the Mystery of Purgatory? Her own life-story seems to have been a story of a Purgatory-on-earth. Even as a young child she received great graces of prayer, at only 8 years old choosing to sleep on straw and using a piece of hard wood as her pillow. At 16, she consented to her parents' choice of marriage for her: Giuliano Adorno. This arranged marriage, so perfect from a worldly point of view, was a disaster in every way. Giuliano was a violent and immoral man who squandered his wife's patrimony and left them in financial straits. In great discouragement and dejection, Catherine took the advice of her sister, who was a nun, to go to confession. As she knelt down in the confessional she received a powerful grace of conversion: "She received suddenly a wound in her heart, the wound of an immense love of God, with deep insight into her own misery, but also into God's goodness. In sentiments of contrition, love, recognition, she was purified, nearly fell to earth, had to suspend her confession which she finished on the morrow. Jesus appeared to her carrying His Cross." She did heroic penance until Christ revealed to her that she had satisfied divine justice. By prayer and penance she also obtained the conversion of her wicked, ne'er do well husband. He joined her in caring for the sick in the chief hospital of Genoa. "She led at that time a life of intense union with God, and suffered much for the deliverance of souls from Purgatory. A fire, mysterious and supernatural, tortured her frame and made her feel a hunger and thirst quite abnormal. During this time she had ecstasies of pain, during which she dictated her Treatise on Purgatory, which is as pithy as it is brief." (Source: Fr. Reginald Garrigou-LaGrange, Life Everlasting, 1952, TAN reprint edition, 1993.)

*FIRST SUNDAY IN THE ADVENT OF
THE LORD: ST. MARY MAJOR, "ST.
MARY OF THE CRIB"

"We enter the house of God, Mary, God's Mother is preparing the Crib in which to lay her Son; she comes to meet us. What a beautiful model of preparation! The stational church is St. Mary Major at the Crib and its stational Saint meets us! Already on this first day of our preparation for Christmas, we see the Mother of God at the Crib! Mary now leads us to the altar, where she speaks to us and leads us in prayer. How fervently does the Introit fall from her lips: "To Thee do I lift up my soul, O Lord my God; in Thee do I trust...for no-one who awaits Thee is abandoned." Mary, the Mother of God, can well teach us how to prepare."

LATIN MASS PROPERS: FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTROIT: Psalm 24. 1-4. TO Thee have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed: neither let my enemies laugh at me: for none of them that wait on Thee shall be confounded. Ps. ibid. 4. Show me, O Lord, Thy ways: and teach me Thy paths. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — To Thee ...

COLLECT: STIR up Thy power, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and come: that from the threatening dangers of our sins, we may deserve to be rescued by Thy protection, and be saved by Thy deliverance: Who livest and reignest with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

EPISTLE: From Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans, 13. 11-14 BRETHREN, knowing that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. The night is passed and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day: not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.

GRADUAL: Psalm 24. 3, 4. ALL they that wait on Thee shall not be confounded, O Lord. V. Show, O Lord, Thy ways to me: and teach me Thy paths. ALLELUIA Alleluia, alleluia. Psalm 84. 8 O Lord, hear my prayer; and let my cry come to Thee. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Luke, 21. 25-33 AT THAT TIME Jesus said to His disciples: There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the roaring of the sea and of the waves: men withering away for fear and expectation of what shall come upon the whole world. For the powers of heaven shall be moved. And then they shall see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is at hand. And He spoke to them a similitude: See the fig tree and all the trees: when they now shoot forth their fruit, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is at hand. Amen, I say to you, this generation shall not pass away till all things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but My words shall not pass away. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 24. 1-3. TO Thee have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed: neither let my enemies laugh at me: for none of them that wait on Thee shall be confounded.

SECRET: MAY these holy Mysteries, O Lord, cleanse us by their powerful efficacy, and enable us to come with greater purity to Him who is their foundation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: Psalm 84. 13. THE Lord will give goodness: and our earth shall yield her fruit.

POSTCOMMUNION: MAY we receive Thy mercy, O Lord, in the midst of Thy temple: that we may with becoming honor prepare for the approaching solemnities of our redemption. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...
