ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

(Pope Saint Paul VI, reigned 1964-1978)

ANNUAL REPORT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2022

This Sunday copies of the Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2022 are available to you in the pamphlet rack of the front vestibule of the Main Church. There are two separate reports: one for the Parish Cemetery of St. Mary's (1 page, double-sided) and one for the Parish Church (2 pages—one double-sided, one single). I encourage you to take these reports home so as to help you be adequately informed on the economic realities of the Parish.

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson who observed ruefully back in the 1800s: "Can anyone remember when times were not hard and money not scarce?" These words seem particularly apropos to me as we consider the difficulties we face to keep our parish open in these our times.

Last year, I was able to present to you an Annual Report that showed our Parish Church revenues showing a slight surplus. This was due in large part to the strong, faithful giving of you the parishioners in spite of the unending disruptions caused by the COVID-19 Pandemic. When the chips were down your collective sacrificial giving carried the day.

This year's Annual Report, however, shows a revenue short-fall of $137,471.00. The short-fall was mitigated by us coming in lower on actual expenses to budget by $24,342.00.

I am well aware of the heavy pressures on your household economies. I am not advocating a providentialist approach: I am not saying you should just give to the Church in amounts untethered to what you can actually afford to give and still meet all your other obligations. I am, however, asking you to please support your Parish at a stewardship-level of giving.

What do I mean by "stewardship-level giving"? I mean a commitment to supporting the Church

"As is well known, at one time there was a custom, still preserved in certain places, of adding to the name of Jesus in each Hail Mary reference to the mystery being contemplated. And this was done precisely in order to help contemplation and to make the mind and the voice act in unison." Pope Paul VI, "Marialis Cultus", 1974

For the Luminous Mysteries composed by John Paul II, we might use these inserts:

The Luminous Mysteries

The Baptism of the Our Lord: "Who was baptized by John for us."

The Wedding Feast at Cana: "Who changed the water into wine."

The Proclamation of the Kingdom: "Who proclaimed the Kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration: "Who was transfigured for us."

The Institution of the Holy Eucharist: "Who gave us His Body and Blood."

out of your substance, not your surplus, in accordance with your means. I am not asking anyone to give money you don't have: but I am asking everyone to give the Lord His portion out of what you do have.

Many Catholics seem to equate giving for Church support with giving to charity. Church support and charity are not the same. Charitable giving is an alms-deed and comes out of what is over and above our living expenses. We use some of what is left over for good works and relieving the wants of the neediest. It is a very important part of Christian living.

Church support, however, is distinct from charitable giving, even if the U.S. tax-code conflates it. It is part of our basic religious duties. It is a recognition that God is the 100% owner of all the worldly resources we have and we give Him back a portion in token of gratitude. This is what is expressed in the verses from the Book of Sirach which I often place in our weekly Stewardship column:

Glorify the Lord generously, and do not stint the first fruits of your hands. With every gift show a cheerful face, and dedicate your tithe with gladness. Give to the Most High as He has given, and as generously as your hand has found. For the LORD is the One who repays, and He will repay you sevenfold.—Sirach 35

I see the donor lists for this Parish. It moves me very deeply to see the level of sacrificial giving that is being made in so many of our households. It is a testament to your own personal faith and to your love for God that you make such sacrifices.

I want to use this occasion of the Annual Report to say thank-you to all who given to the support of this parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes in the last Fiscal Year. May God bless you for the sincerity of your gifts and sustain you in all your needs.

SAINT MARY'S CEMETERY

Our Annual Report for our Parish Cemetery of St. Mary's shows a solid financial footing. The net income from FY 2022 was $46,824.00. I want to thank our parishioner and Superintendent Ron Goguen and the members his family-run company Guardian Estate Management for taking such excellent care of St. Mary's and for making sure that it retains its character as a Catholic Cemetery. It is now one decade since Guardian Estate Management took over the running of St. Mary's. I want to commend also Margie Bibbo who wears two hats at the rectory, running both the parish and the cemetery office, and who always extends herself for families in their time of loss. Finally, I want to thank our Business Manager Sharon Hogan for the excellent financial reports and her work as the parish accountant, which gives us the clear picture of our financial standing as we try to "navigate the waters".

LATIN MASS PROPERS: THE KINGSHIP OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

INTROIT: (Apoc. 5. 12; 1. 26; Ps. 71. 1) The Lamb that was slain is worthy to receive power and divinity and wisdom and strength and honor; to Him be glory and empire for ever and ever. Ps. 71. 1. Give to the King, O God, thy justice, and to the King's Son Thy judgment. ∇. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — The Lamb ...

COLLECT Almighty and everlasting God, who in Thy beloved Son, the King of the whole world, hast willed to restore all things, mercifully grant that all the families of nations now kept apart by the wound of sin, may be brought under the sweet yoke of His rule: Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost ...

EPISTLE: From the Letter of Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Colossians, 1. 12-20. Brethren: Giving thanks to God the Father, who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the Saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His Blood, the remission of sins; who is the image of the invisible God, the first born of every creature: for in Him were all things created in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible: whether thrones, or dominations, or principalities, or powers, all things were created by Him and in Him; and He is before all, and by Him all things consist, and He is the head of the body of the Church, who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in all things He may hold the primacy because in Him it hath well-pleased the Father that all fullness should dwell; and through Him to reconcile all things unto Himself, making peace through the Blood of His cross, both as to the things on earth, and the things that are in heaven, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL: Psalm 71. 8, 11 He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. And all kings shall adore Him, all nations shall serve Him. ALLELUIA Daniel 7. 14 His power shall be an everlasting power, which shall not be taken away; and His kingdom a kingdom that shall not decay. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John, 18. 33-37. At that time: Pilate said to Jesus: Art Thou King of the Jews? Jesus answered: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or have others told it thee of Me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered Thee up to me: what hast Thou done? Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from hence. Pilate therefore said to Him: Art Thou a king then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a King. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world, that I should give testimony to the truth. Every one that is of the truth, heareth My voice.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 2. 8 Ask of Me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance, and the ends of the earth for thy possession.

SECRET: O Lord, we offer Thee the Victim of man's redemption: grant, we beseech Thee, that Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, whom we are immolating in this sacrifice, may Himself bestow on all nations the gifts of unity and peace: Who with Thee liveth and reigneth ...

COMMUNION: Psalm 28. 10, 11 The Lord shall sit as King for ever: the Lord shall bless His people in peace.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have received the food of immortality and beg, Lord, that we who are proud to fight under the banner of Christ our King, may reign with Him for ever in His realm above: Who liveth and reigneth ...
