ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass Apostolate within its parish mission. The Missale Romanum of 1962 is celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM, EITHER ON-LINE OR BY USING THE PAPER REGISTRATION FORM IN THE PAMPHLET RACK IN THE FRONT VESTIBULE OF THE MAIN CHURCH.

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

PARISH LENTEN MISSION, 2023: FRERE ANDRE, THE "MIRACLE-MAN" OF MONTREAL CONFERENCE VI: "THE GRAIN OF WHEAT THAT DIES"

"But Jesus answered them, saying: The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless the grain of wheat falling into the ground die, itself remaineth alone. But if it die it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it and he that hateth his life in this world keepeth it unto life eternal."

—St. John 12:23-25

Our Lord spoke these words on Palm Sunday, just after He had made His triumphal entry into Jerusalem. They are words which fill us with emotion as we understand how Jesus is looking into the depths of His Passion. The grain of wheat that dies and is buried in the earth, which then bringeth forth much fruit, is Our Lord Jesus Christ Himself in His Death and Resurrection. The grain of wheat that dies in order to bring forth more abundant life is also a key image of our own Christian lives. Eternity is contained within our "grain-of-wheat". It is only by our dying that it can be released.

We have been considering in our Conferences

I am nothing ... only a tool in the hands of Providence, a lowly instrument at the service of St. Joseph.

over the past six Lenten Fridays how God used the Holy Cross Brother André Bessette (who held only the lowly office of the door-answerer in his religious Community) as an instrument of divine power, all the while the Brother saw himself as a secondary instrument to Saint Joseph, who was the primary conduit of God's divine power at work through prayer.

It is striking to us from a distance just how "unadorned" Frere André's apostolate was. We are quite accustomed to the religious celebrity who sits at the center of a well-organized (and frequently well-funded) "ministry". The developments in social media have further promoted this style of reaching people. Inescapably, it tends to fall into the groove of the business model of expansion and public-relations promotion.

But the apostolate of Frere André through Saint Joseph was not at all like that. He wrote no books. He gave no speeches. Our record of what he said is cobbled together from people's memories of them. Frere André's apostolate had three phases: first, people began to seek him out as the porter at the College Notre-Dame; then the Community sent him down to the tramway station to talk to the people who came in the tramway reception room; finally he (continued on Page 8)

Rev. Timothy J. Danahy
Pastor, 1890-1923

FATHER DANAHY and the ORIGINS of MARY IMMACULATE OF LOURDES CHURCH:

Father Timothy J. (T. J.) Danahy was already the Pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Newton/Needham when he made a pilgrimage to Lourdes in the early 1890s. There he received a miraculous cure of his damaged eyesight after bathing in the pool of the Lourdes spring. He then made a vow that he would one day build a church in honor of Our Lady of Lourdes, as an offering of thanksgiving. He fulfilled that vow when this church of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes was dedicated on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th, A.D. 1910. Consider how this church in which we are worshipping here Easter Sunday is a votive offering of a miraculé of Lourdes. This Year 2023 is the Centenary Year of Father Danahy's death: November 5th, 1923.

April 9th, A.D. 2023

was assigned to the original, small Oratory of Saint Joseph erected on the Mount Royal to receive the visitors. Other than that he was taken to visit the poor sick who could not come to him. His tools of ministry were the sacramentals of St. Joseph medals and St. Joseph oil, to be rubbed on the sick body, accompanied and followed by prayers to St. Joseph.

The last years of Frere André's life were a virtual Way-of-the-Cross. He was very old, his health was failing, he was at the point of exhaustion, and yet—thronges of visitors came to his office making ever-increasing demands. Under the strain of it all, the cracks of impatience began to show through, as his Superior, Father Cousineau, later testified:

Many people, frightened by his ascetic expression or by the abruptness with which he put an end to meaningless conversations, failed to notice that Brother André maintained, despite his abrupt demeanor, a facial serenity [which was] the mirror of his inner peace...

For five days at the turning of the Year 1937, Frere André lay dying in a Catholic Hospital run by the Sisters of Good Hope. He asked the Sisters attending him to "Pray for my conversion". On January 3rd, he said: "The Almighty is coming." Fifty minutes after midnight on January 6th, the Feast of the Epiphany, Frere André breathed his last. The grain of wheat had died and was buried in the earth.

Since then, his life in eternity has borne much fruit. The Church has given her judgment by raising him to the altars as one of her canonized Saints. But as with Christ, so with His Saints: an unbelieving, cold-hearted world does not recognize the goodness of God in their midst. This is our challenge—to see through the world's filter and to discover just what it is to be a Christian!

LATIN MASS PROPERS: EASTER SUNDAY

INTROIT: Psalm 138. 18, 5-6, 1-2 I arose, and am still with Thee, alleluia; Thou hast laid Thy hand upon Me, alleluia; Thy knowledge is become wonderful, alleluia, alleluia. Psalm. Lord, Thou hast searched Me, and known Me; Thou knowest My sitting down and My rising up. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. — I arose

COLLECT: O God, Who, on this day, through Thine only-begotten Son, hast conquered death, and thrown open to us the gate of everlasting life, give effect by Thine aid to our desires, which Thou dost anticipate and inspire. Through the same ...

EPISTLE: From First Epistle of Blessed Paul to the Corinthians (I Cor 5. 7-8) Brethren: purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new paste, as you are unleavened: for Christ our Pasch is sacrificed. Therefore let us feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GRADUAL: Psalm 117. 24, 1 This is the day which the Lord hath made: let us rejoice and be glad in it. Give praise unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth for ever. ALLELUIA I Cor. 5. 7 Alleluia, Alleluia. Christ our Pasch is sacrificed.

EASTER SEQUENCE: Christians! to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. The Lamb the sheep redeemeth: Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that conflict stupendous: the Prince of Life, who died, deathless reigneth. Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring. "The tomb of Christ who now liveth: and likewise the glory of the Risen. Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee He goeth before you." We know that Christ is risen, henceforth ever living: Have mercy, Victor King, pardon giving. Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Mark 16. 1-7 At that time, Mary Magdalen, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought sweet spices, that coming they might anoint Jesus. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulchre, the sun being now risen. And they said one to another: Who shall roll us back the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And looking, they saw the stone rolled back. For it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed with a white robe, and they were astonished. Who saith to them: Be not affrighted; ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: He is risen, He is not here; behold the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples, and Peter, that He goeth before you into Galilee; there you shall see Him, as He told you.

OFFERTORY: Psalm 75. 9-10 The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment, alleluia.

SECRET: We beseech Thee, O Lord, accept the prayers of Thy people together with the Sacrifice they offer, that what has been begun by the Paschal Mysteries, may by Thy arrangement result in our eternal healing. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: I Corinthians 5, 7-8 Christ our Pasch is sacrificed, alleluia: therefore let us feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION: Pour forth upon us, O Lord, the spirit of Thy love, that those whose hunger Thou has satisfied with the Sacraments of Easter may in Thy kindness be one in heart. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...
